

VISIT...

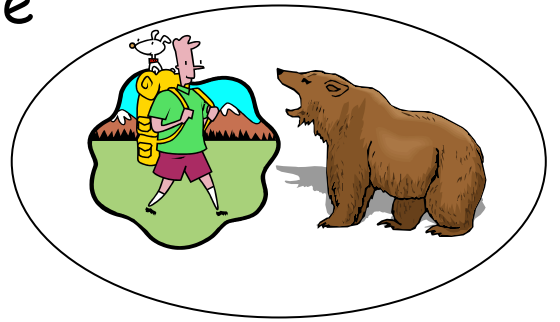

LANZAROTE
Caliente.COM

WHEN YOU WRITE A STORY

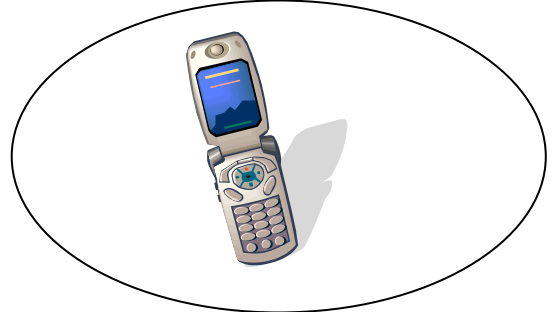

Tips for Developing the Plot

- Make a story map for the three parts of your plot.

- o The beginning introduces the characters and setting and tells about an interesting problem or situation that must be worked out.

- o The middle tells how the characters try to solve the problem or deal with the situation.

- o The ending tells how the problem is solved or the situation is dealt with.

